GLOBAL GLASS MANUFACTURER OCEANSIDE GLASSTILE WELCOMES NEW PARTNER VINCENT MOISO TO LEAD BUSINESS DEVELOPMENT

Carlsbad, CA – For Immediate Release – Oceanside Glasstile is proud to announce the addition of Vincent (Vince) Moiso as Partner and Vice President of Business Development. With more than 14 years of global industry experience, Vince joins owners Sean Gildea and Johnny Marckx to manage international and private label accounts, and to identify new growth strategies.

“Vince brings tremendous energy for creating new business opportunities built on strong relationships. His enthusiasm and leadership abilities are palpable and he presents fresh ideas with a positive perspective and determination,” says Executive Vice President and Partner Johnny Marckx.

Prior to joining the Oceanside Glasstile executive team, Vince directed sales and marketing, and strategic channels for industry leader GBI Tile and Stone Inc., contributing major growth to the company during his tenure as both a shareholder and executive. Most recently, Vince served a $75M portfolio of tile and stone companies as a strategic growth and risk management consultant under his own business and financial consulting company, VIS Aspire Inc., in association with Pacific Advisors.

Oceanside Glasstile CEO and Partner Sean Gildea comments, "As we grow and take on new opportunities, it is a great time for Vince to join forces with our team. We have worked with Vince for many years and deeply respect his integrity and talent. His commitment and investment in Oceanside Glasstile make us an even stronger company allowing us to continue our commitment to excellent customer service.”

Vince holds an MBA from Cal State University, Fullerton and a BA from the University of San Diego where he remains an active alumnus, sitting on the Alumni Board of Directors and lecturing during international student seminars. He serves on both the Board of Directors for the Entrepreneurs Organization of Orange County, and the Board of Directors for the National Association of Insurance and Financial Advisors (NAIFA) in Orange County. In his free time Vince enjoys crossfit, surfing and basketball. He lives in San Clemente with his wife and two daughters.
